E-FILE is COMING TO BRISTOL!

Probate of Estates E-File Pilot for Lawyers ONLY is ready to roll!

Effective April 3rd, the Bristol County Probate & Family Court will be accepting Formal and Informal Probates via E-File. This is strictly a Pilot Program currently designed for ATTORNEYS ONLY, although the Pilot will eventually expand to pro-se litigants as well as other case types.

Trainings and further information regarding this Limited Probate E-File Pilot will be coming your way SOON! Pick up a pamphlet in one of our Registry locations to learn more.

BRISTOL REGISTRY WEBSITE TO GET A "NEW LOOK"

The Bristol County Probate & Family Court Registry website www.BristolCountyProbate.com will look a little different in the near future. (See photo)

We are committed to improving the quality of our operation, the accessibility of our Court and user friendliness of our Registry and website.

The investment we are making in our new website is a great example of this.

We will continue to provide the same comprehensive, updated information and content currently provided in our existing website but with a more modern look and simpler design. This website is going to help provide a better service to you. However, like with any new website, there will be a learning curve. Please bear with us as we get used to the new layout. As always, Registry staff will be available to answer your questions and willingly listen to your suggestions for improvement.

Stay tuned for more information, including an official launch date!
